-----ATTENTION: TSA has

expanded its Trusted Traveler program known as PreCheck, to Service members flying out of Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport (DCA). Service members, active drilling Reservists, National Guardsmen, and members of the Coast Guard, who present a valid Common Access Card (CAC) at security checkpoints will receive expedited security screening. For those members flying out of gates 10-22, go to the TSA PreCheck lane at the security checkpoint in terminal B (gates 10-22), and present your CAC to a TSA officer. Once verified, members will not be required to remove their shoes, outerwear, belts, laptops or small liquid containers from carry-ons when going through security. Eligible Service members do not need to be on official travel or in uniform to participate.

So, now you know what
